Bengtson Lane Subdivision draws concerns over water, density and actual number of units proposed

MILLBURY - The Zoning Board of Appeals continued a public hearing on Wednesday, May 25 to once again consider a proposal from Bengtson Estate Realty Trust to construct 50 housing units on Bengtson Lane. Some twenty residents from the area were present to question and comment on the proposed project. According to Mark Donahue, attorney for the developer, the project would include 17 units of "affordable" housing and 33 marketable units.

The two issues drawing most attention were a request for a waiver of the town water requirement and, affected by this, the number of units proposed for the development. The issue of the town water waiver drew some concern because the proposal to install wells in lieu of town water could impact the efficiency of fire protection. ZBA member John Powers read a letter from Fire Chief Thomas Nault, written in response to the board's inquiry. In the letter, Nault stated, "Under no condition would I approve a subdivision without town water and operational fire hydrants." His decision was based on a Fire Protection Association standard which states that units should be separated by at least 50 feet.

Donahue disagreed with the chief's remarks, stating that 20 feet has been given as an acceptable distance between units. Nault, who was present at the meeting, then offered a clarification of his position. He explained that 50 feet between units is the minimum requirement which the Fire Protection Association has set for a unit of single family or duplex housing. "Once construction is closer than this, water requirements are increased by 50%. That water requirement is not down there," he emphasized.

"Under no condition would I approve a subdivision without town water and operational fire hydrants." - Millbury Fire Chief Tom Nault

"There are presently two subdivisions with water requirements, and they haven't asked for a waiver. I'm asking if this is a way of making these houses affordable? I only wish that we had the people here who are going to live in them. Would they approve of it (the waiver)?" Nault asked.

Members of the audience then called for a clarification on the actual number of units being proposed. According to Elmwood Street resident Edward Cooney, "We've been misled. Nineteen houses were proposed to the Planning Board; at the Conservation Commission meeting, it was stated that 19 houses were being proposed. Here they're talking about 50 units. We're being pulled in all different directions. Each time we come to a meeting the numbers are different."

Chief Nault also mentioned the discrepancy in numbers in his comments to the board, explaining that he was aware of the 19 unit proposal and had seen the proposal for 50 units which he did not approve. However, he stated, "I've never seen a subdivision for 19 lots."

Noting that other developments have the same problem of not having access to the minimum flow requirement of 1,800 to 2,000 gallons per minute, he cautioned the board against waiving the town water requirement saying, "I hope the waiver is not granted."

Beach Street resident Frank Bengtson also cautioned against granting a waiver. "I can't understand the waiver for (town) water. A developer has to supply water." When ZBA Chairman Richard Valentino explained that the waiver would allow the developer to put in 50 individual wells rather than town water, Bengtson also questioned the effect this would have on the people with existing wells on Beach and Elmwood Streets.

Through your media, I am requesting that any of your readers who may have served or who know of anyone who served aboard the New Jersey, please contact me.

The reunions are fun, and it is good to see and talk to men who lived and served with you. We hope each and every one of your readers realize the importance and sentimentality of our request and make every endeavor to help in this effort.

Millbury Selectmen's Meeting Digest

Anniversary Plans Highlight Meeting

By Edward J. Cooney

May 24, 1988

MILLBURY - Vice Chairman John Donnelly called the Selectmen's meeting to order at 7 p.m. in the absence of Chairman Jude Cristo, who was attending another meeting.

Minutes for May 10th were approved and minutes for May 17 were held over for review by board members.

- Prior to giving his weekly report, Administrative Assistant Earl Chase informed the board that there were minutes of executive sessions from five different dates available for review and approval prior to being released for public record. One of the meetings concerned litigation against the town by Millbury Amusement Center, and the other four were concerned with negotiations and collective bargaining with town employee unions. The board approved release of the minutes on a 4-0 vote.

- Chase informed the board that the Worcester County Engineer's plan showing the meets and bounds of a portion of Herricks Lane still lacks the certification of a registered engineer as there was no certified engineer available.

- In another matter, the board granted a 30 day extension for the installation of new storage tanks at C&S Lumber on McCracken Road. Chase informed board members that the June 1st deadline could not be met as the tanks would not arrive until sometime during the 1st two weeks of June.

- Cristo assumed the chair and reviewed Dates to Remember. The board voted 5-0 to change the route of the Memorial Day services as Waters Street is under reconstruction. The highway department is in the process of reconstructing sidewalks along both sides of the street.

- Cristo then moved the meeting to Old Business, taking up the first item, Appointments. The board voted 4-0 to appoint James Cristo to the Dorothy Pond Restoration Committee. No appointments were made to the Zoning Board of Appeals as Chase stated that he had not made contact with ZBA Chairman Richard Valentino.

- A brief discussion then ensued, concerning the position of Safety Officer for the Town. Sgt. Edward Perry has chosen not to continue in the position in the next fiscal year. The position presently pays $900 on a part time basis. Police Chief George Brady noted that the position has been posted for several weeks in the department, but no one has shown an interest in applying. He attributed the lack of interest to the low salary.

It was noted that a person has expressed a possible interest if the salary were raised to $3,000. Donnelly stated that he didn't want to pay $3,000 for the position.

Selectman Wynton Adams suggested that a job description be developed before talking to anyone about the position. He noted that applications could be accepted in the meantime. Members concurred that a trained police officer would be the most appropriate choice for the position. The position requires training and supervision of school crossing guards, as well as completing traffic and safety surveys and reports, keeping track of time sheets, and collecting vouchers.

On a 5-0 vote, the board approved advertising for the position and developing a job description.

Introducing the Transformer Mortgage
Because rates that go up, can come down.

If mortgage rates that go up can come down, why lock into a high fixed rate now?
With the Transformer Mortgage from Fidelity Co-operative Bank, you don't have to. The Transformer lets you pay a low adjustable rate now or lock into a fixed rate security at your option. You can keep your adjustable rate until fixed rates are lower, and convert to a fixed rate at no cost to you anytime between the first anniversary and the fifth anniversary of your loan, or lock in a fixed rate up to seven days prior to closing. The decision if and when to lock in is yours. That's the Fidelity Transformer advantage.

- The Board then met with Fred Vulter, chairman of the 175th Anniversary Committee, several committee members, Chief Brady, Fire Chief Tom Nault, and Highway Surveyor Joe Chase, to discuss plans for parking, traffic, security and locations of bathroom facilities for an expected large crowd during several of the planned anniversary events.

Vulter explained that a first aid station will be available, with two ambulances and EMT's on duty. Public bathrooms will be located at the Baptist and Federated churches, as well as two portable facilities in the downtown area.

Rubbish will be collected by each non-profit organization during the bock party.

Vulter also reported that sawhorses would be used to block off traffic in the downtown area for the block party.

Vulter presented the board with a list of secondary parking areas where cars will be directed to park during the bicycle races and block party events. The Elmwood Street and Middle School parking lots were suggested as other possible parking sites.

Fire Chief Nault was assured that there would be alternate routes for fire equipment to use to bypass the downtown area. The routes will be identified and given to the fire department.

Chief Brady assured the board that if back up support was needed due to a large crowd, he would acquire the services of Sutton police.

Vulter then asked the board if they would waive the $25 fireworks display permit. Cristo replied that the board had decided at a previous meeting that fees would be required from everyone, including the town.

Cristo also informed Vulter that nothing could be done to prevent vendors who are state licensed from selling their wares during the events.

Chief Nault then reported that he was pleased that there would not be any bonfires this year as his men had been harassed in the past.

Cristo then questioned Vulter, a member of the Millbury Police Department, on the times and days he would be involved in the anniversary events. Vulter replied that he would be involved in all events but would be available for police duty in an emergency.

The board also approved a request to drape the Town Hall, the Asa Waters Mansion, the Fire Station and the Library with bunting, at a cost of $250.00.

- In another matter that followed, Joe Chase, Highway Surveyor, asked the board to consider a request from Mark Dana, of Mass. American Water Works, that would exchange not paving the area of Millbury Avenue slated for reconstruction in return for grinding a section of Millbury Ave. up to Rte. 20. Dana had informed Chase that R.H. White Construction, the contractor, was also asking for a release of liability for the section of Millbury Ave. to be reconstructed in the near future.

Adams expressed concern, noting that he had trouble with approving a release of liability. He suggested that the board approve the motion with the understanding that the road section under consideration be maintained until reconstruction was started. The vote was 5-0 in favor of the exchange of work, but not for release of liability on the other section of Millbury Ave.

A brief discussion developed concerning the lack of sufficient curbing for establishing the radius at Hayward Glen and Millbury Ave.

The curbing was moved to allow a curb cut and entrance to Hayward Glen. Cristo noted that the building inspector had stopped issuing permits for new construction, citing problems in the development. He suggested that Chase check with the Planning Board concerning the issue to see what they can do.

- Chief Brady spoke to the Board concerning his accrued vacation time, explaining that he has 25 vacation days and 2 personal days coming to him.

Cristo suggested that after the present work load is completed, Brady should try to take a couple of weeks after the start of the new fiscal year. He also suggested that Brady try to take days in each quarter to avoid having so many days hang on. "Use them on a scheduled basis. Spread it out. If you hold on to them, it creates a problem for us," Cristo said.

- Turning to Old Business, the agenda moved forward quite rapidly as most old business items were skipped over for lack of any new information.

- According to Chase, Dean Moschos will be outlining procedures to perform a classification plan for the town. Cristo suggested that the personnel board be informed and involved.

- An agenda item concerning keeping the K-9 unit in the police department was dropped on a 5-0 vote. Members questioned whether the unit was worth the expense.

- Under New Business, the board approved the following:

1. street opening permits to Commonwealth Gas for 1 Hamilton Street and 24 Woodland Street.

2. a Central Mass Health Care contract

3. an application to the Mass. D.P.W., State Aid to Highways, for appropriation for Chapter 81 distribution.

4. a Mutual Aid Agreement with other police departments.

5. a street opening request from Bob Bernard for sewer and water on Miles Street.

6. a request for legal services from Thomas Dunford, Veterans Agent.

7. a street opening at 64 Main Street, requested by Mass. American Water Works at 64 Main Street.

- Selectman Roland Lachance requested that an item for preventive maintenance on Dolan Road be placed on the agenda. Elmwood Street will also be added to see when a section that was torn up for sewerage would be repaved or overlaid.

- Lachance then stated that he had read an article concerning percentages on reimbursements to towns. He questioned why Millbury had not the same net percent of increases as contiguous towns. He suggested that Chase check with State Representative Paul Kollios.

The agenda was completed at 9:05 p.m.

WIT AND WISDOM

Success is when you have your name in everything but the telephone directory.

Behind every successful man is a man who says he went to school with him.

If you keep your head down playing golf, you can hit the ball and pray at the same time.

WELL HELLO AGAIN, me Buckoes! 'Tis been awhile since we last met. A lot of water spilled over the dam since that time, a lot of news has been in the makin'...good news, bad, more bad than good! Let's try to put some of this in perspective, if we can. As Jackie Gleason would say: 'And away we go!'

ON THE AGENDA this week, we will try to cover items concerning Coke and Pepsi - Kickin' the Habit - Smelly Wheelabrator - the Duke of Paducah - Fishy Odors - Ollie North - Baggers - and the recipient of the Monthly Pee Wee Salute. So, without further adieu, let's do it! And always remember: 'He who laughs...Lasts!'

'COCA COLA HITS THE spot, twelve full ounces, that's a lot!' Remember that jingle from way back when? Well friends, we heard a news report recently relating to the fact that Coke and Pepsi have a deal worked out with some of the Big Food Chains and Markets whereas they (Pepsi and Coke) have paid huge sums to these stores if they would provide prime space - location for their products, and friends, we're talking BIG money!

I didn't know deals of this sort were legal in this day and age. Some smaller companies have been relegated to the rear of the store to show off their wares. The poor Sasparilla vendor hasn't a chance. Now who said money doesn't talk! It sure do, believe you me.

If you ask me, Coke and Pepsi are overpriced as it is. Let's all go back to Kool Aid! Remember that 5 cent envelope? Memories, memories....

'WHY DID THEY KICK that Habit?' Andy Rooney asked in one of his recent columns. According to Rooney, 'If you're going to be a nun, you ought to look like and act like a nun. I wish Pope Paul would come up with a pronunciamento (?) on dress for priests and nuns. Aren't they as proud of being nuns as they once were? Why, for that matter, do so many priests go out wearing regular shirts and ties when we expect something more of them. Men of the cloth ought to wear their regular cloth. Priests, ministers and nuns ought to be as identifiable as policemen in an emergency....'

Brother Rooney, get with it, kid. Things have changed! But I would like to see the veils return. It does make a difference.

"LAY THAT PISTOL DOWN, Babe!" Pistol Packin' Mammas, yup, that's what we have now in Florida. Evidently the Town and the State have made it easier for all to own handguns, and everyone is on edge. Men, women, they're all arming themselves...to the hilt!

One woman shot a cat, thought it was a burglar. Stores are posting signs indicating, 'No guns permitted inside.' Florida, California, Boston, guns are alive and they're putting a lot of people to sleep. People are going cuckoo! Police in Florida say they are facing a crisis. They can't keep up with the false alarms, gang wars. 'Tis a sad state for all concerned...And that's the way it is, and we're afraid it will be that way for a long, long time.

GOTTA TELL YOU THIS ONE. Went to a nephew's First Communion in Whitinsville. What a crowd! The only thing that put a damper on the affair, and I literally mean a DAMPER, was that little baby in his mother's arms in front of me. He drooled all over the place, he sneezed in my face (a small kerchoo! but I felt it), and he finally wet the bench. Now that's what I call a real damper.

God Bless Him! He's only a baby, I know, but did he have to sneeze in my face? Maybe he was giving me his own version of a 'blessing!' P.S. The Sunday school teachers, from ALL the churches around the countryside, deserve a Tip of the Hat for doing a great job with the kids. God Bless them all; I'm sure He has already.

HIT THE ROAD, DUKE! - The Publicans want the governor to either 'fish or get off the throne!' Yup, they want him either to devote full time and energy to the governorship or hit the road and devote his time to his aspirations as President, one or the other....

MILLBURY - Assumption School 7th graders recently performed "The Kids on the Block," for their fellow students. The skits and puppets were provided by the Massachusetts Department of Education. Dealing with disabled and non-disabled children who are frequently singled out as being "different," the skits are designed to heighten the awareness that all children are deserving of respect and equality in treatment. Left to right: Daniele Recore with her puppet "Mandy", who is deaf; Kim Kilgore, who also operates "Mandy"; Colleen Hines with her puppet "Ellen Jane," who is retarded; Carmen Szynal with her puppet "Brenda," who is overweight, Michael Coco with his puppet "Mark Riley," who has cerebral palsy; Edward Endriga with his puppet "Ronald Rodriguez," who is blind; Rebecca Prince with her puppet "Melody," who wears glasses, is underweight, and fantasizes.

By Rosemary Waltos

The Millbury Public Library Board of Trustees' mission is to assure that the Library provides a high standard of library and information services to the community. In doing so, they have a number of responsibilities. One of the most important of these is the legal responsibility to know, study, and follow local, state, and federal laws that affect public libraries and empower boards of trustees. Additionally, the Trustees have personnel responsibilities which include employing a library director and adopting personnel policies. They also are the leaders in library planning by analyzing the community and the strengths and weaknesses of library services, by adopting goals and objectives, and by establishing priorities. Finally, the Board officially approves and adopts library policies and assists in interpreting these policies to the public and to the staff.

Individuals working together for the community's right to a high standard of library services are key to the success of any public library. Towards this goal, the Board of Trustees is pleased to introduce its newest Board member, Carol Burke, elected to the Board in April.

Carol Burke, an active member of the Friends of the Millbury Public Library this past year, is well suited for the job of serving on the board. She has lived in Millbury for 13 years and is a member of the Town's Swim Study Committee.

Mrs. Burke has a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology from the University of Massachusetts and a Master's Degree in Education with a Certificate of Advanced Graduate Study in Rehabilitation Counseling from Springfield College. Her educational background, coupled with her knowledge of the community, will be an asset to the public library.

During the month of May, the Millbury Public Library and the board of trustees reluctantly accepted the resignation of long time board member, Joan Hoel.

Joan Hoel had been a member of the Board since April, 1977. As a board member for the past eleven years, she served as both chair and vice chairwoman of the board, and served as a member of the Library's Building Committee. Throughout her length of service, she brought to the board those important skills, talents, and personal experience that served as a link between the library and the community. She was a strong advocate and leader. She will be remembered for the part she played in the library's recent expansion and the development of not only the library's facility, but also its personnel and services.

Ms. Hoel leaves the Board to pursue her Masters in Social Work at the University of Connecticut. She is also the Executive Director of the Age Center of Worcester Area, Inc.

The Board of Trustees, Director, and staff will miss Ms. Hoel. With her resignation, there is now a vacancy on the six person board. Anyone interested in serving is asked to contact the Library at 865-1181 or Karen Kenary at 865-9078.

COMING SOON

JUNE 12 - 1:00 to 3:00 - DRAWING BY DESIGN: DAVID MACAULAY'S MILL. Join us for the opening of this major art exhibit of the works of noted author/illustrator David Macaulay. A reception will be hosted by the Friends of the Millbury Public Library on June 12, from 1-3. This exhibit will be on display from June 12-25.

Thank You

The Millbury Public Library thanks Millbury's own Whitney Insurance Agency, the "extra effort agency" for its generous donation to the library of fifteen hundred bookmarkers. Bookmarks are available at the library.

Singletary Sailing Association

The Singletary Sailing Association Racing Season opens on Sunday, June 5, at 1400 (2:00 p.m.). Frank Kaczinski will be Race Committee Chairman for the day. All skippers are requested to check in with him, prior to start time, to receive course instructions.

Points will accrue to registered SSA skippers who have paid their dues. Call John Gaucher (865-2372 or 832-5807) for details.

College Task Force to Meet

UXBRIDGE - The Blackstone Valley Community College Task Force will meet on Friday, June 17, at 8:15 a.m. at T.J.'s Restaurant in the Uxbridge Inn, Route 16 and 122. The group of business, civic, and educational leaders from throughout the Blackstone Valley was convened recently to map out plans to better serve the higher educational needs of Valley residents and employers.

Gerald L. Gaudette, Jr. of Northbridge, and Jack Robarts of Uxbridge are co-chairmen of the Task Force. Representative Richard T. Moore (D-Uxbridge) who convened the Task Force, is serving as Secretary.

A subcommittee of the group has been working on an outline of a feasibility study which the group wants Massachusetts Chancellor of Higher Education Dr. Franklin Jennifer to perform. The scope of services for the feasibility study, which is being finalized by a subcommittee, will be mailed to all Task Force members prior to the June 17th confab.

Board member Robert Lapinsky asked Donahue if the developer could reduce the number of units. Donahue replied that because the developer must install public water, two sidewalks, and underground utilities, the cost of building the development as designed or planned would be too great.

ZBA member John Powers then stated, "I can't see any possibility that the number of wells proposed will provided enough water for use or for public safety."

In response, Donahue stated, "We will waive the request of a waiver of water. Paragraph 12 is stricken by agreement of applicant."

Discussion then turned to the issue of density, with Lapinsky stating, "One major concern (I have) is the density on that site. The real basic issue is density. The developer says he can't build this (development) without 50 units. I live in an area where the density is about the same. Fifty units are not going fly. If the number of units can't be reduced, in my own opinion, I can't approve it. The major issue is safety and other factors."

Donahue argued that the density used by the State Homeownership Opportunity Program (HOP) and other agencies would allow for from 8 to 12.5 units per lot. He stated that the developer had come to the board with the lowest number which he felt he could build. "Miles always wanted to provide something for the town and wanted to build affordable housing not according to the state but with their own plan. We're not trying to be hard guys; we've reduced the numbers as much as we could."

Lapinsky restated his position and concern stating, "I want people to understand that it's not the number of units; it's the way the homes are going to abut and the fire danger. I live in a project near the Fair; if my neighbor's house catches on fire, it'll be 'see you later.' It's not the numbers; it's the closeness."

After some discussion as to how the problem could be alleviated, Valentino closed the public hearing to allow the board to discuss how they were going to proceed. He reported their conclusion stating to Attorney Donahue and those who remained at the meeting, "We're going to set up another meeting so our other member can be here. Probably in a week or two, we'll send you a registered letter and let the public know when we'll continue our discussion."

With that, the meeting ended.

Lillian C. Sheehan (far right) engages in conversation with the Rev. Robert E. Kelley (left), Associate Pastor at St. Brigid's Church in Millbury and the Most Rev. George E. Rueger, Auxiliary Bishop of the Worcester Diocese, at the St. Brigid's Women's Club annual Communion Supper held on Thursday, May 19. We don't know what the conversation was all about, but maybe Lillian was showing them one of the witty and informative columns she writes for the Chronicle.

They say the state is suffering from a 'part time' governor. Hey guys, give him credit, a little anyway. He's trying his best! Be good to him, you may need him some day. He COULD be our next President! Good Grief. What a boring four years. I'm a demo but I kinda agree with the 'publicans. But if the Duke makes it, I'll revert to being a born again demo. C'est la vie. I had to go out and buy a pair of boots, you know, galoshes, there's so much of you know what accumulating these days thanks to the candidates. Only in America....

BULLETIN! - Just in. They now say that after Pres Reagan returns from his journey to Russia, and after signing the INF Treaty, if it's ready by that time, he will RESIGN and turn the reigns over to Georgie Porgie Bush! The President's new home in California is already staffed and ready for his occupancy. What a political move that would be. It's a possibility, don't knock it! Stranger things have happened in the realm of politics.

HERE AND THERE ITEMS...

THERE IS NO bagger like a senior bagger! Why is it the younger baggers today give you a dirty look when you tell them not to put the strawberries, eggs and sponge cake in the bottom of the bag when packing the stuff. The only good bagger is a senior bagger. Our hats are off to 'em...EVER SEE A FROG jump 10 feet high? Well this frog did. I was passing in front of City Hall one lunch break and the civil defense siren began to wail away! Glory Be to God, it sure did scare the heck out of a lot of people passing by.

HE SURE DO HAS A LOT of nerve! We speak of Jerry Falwell in his equating Ollie North's 'suffering' to those of Jesus Christ....To equate Ollie with Jesus Christ kinda rubbed me wrong. I thought it was in poor taste and disrespectful on Jerry's part to make a statement like that...BUT YOU know what? How much you wanna make a nickel bet that Ollie, now that he has the notoriety, the money, and the backing of Jerry Fallout, will be entering the political arena. No doubt about it in my mind....GOTCHA! Wheelabrator! for going over the limits in your emissions. And all this time I thought it was the garlic I was putting in my spaghetti sauce. It's a good thing we have agencies keeping tabs on you guys....

THE PEE WEE SALUTE this month has got to go to Judge Garrity out Boston way...He's generous with the taxpayer's money, isn't he? He just awarded 400 inmates the sum of $1.2 million dollars to be shared equally with those inmates. You wanna know why? Because they had to use 'potties' while they were incarcerated. It seems there were no toilet facilities available! Now why in the hell didn't he just take that $1.2 million and have facilities installed? One doesn't have to be a college grad to figure that one out. How dumb! Dumb!

PHEW! A FISH SMELL...Do you know that eggs laid by hens that were fed 'fish oil' reduced blood pressure and blood fats in a small group of people and didn't raise their cholesterol levels? How about that. The eggs used in study smelled and tasted like fish (ugh!) but could be avoided by feeding the hens 'deodorized fish oil.' A regular egg averages 274 milligrams of cholesterol. Yahoo! No more powdered eggs or eggbeaters. Amen and Alleluia! I knew the scientists would come up with something. I bet the egg people are glad, not to mention the old hens!

MORE HERE AND THERE items. Smile! You're on Password. The biggest single winner on TV Password was arrested when a TV viewer recognized him as a fugitive from justice....He was arrested when he tried to pick up his $58,600 in winnings. GOTCHA!

AN IDEA WHOSE time has come. A couple of guys came up with the idea of home delivery of oil and grease! Yup, they will now go to your home and grease and oil your car, clean and polish, for a price. Makes sense to me. Makes cents for them. How about that.

HEY! WHAT'S UP, DOC?....We're more confused than ever now with the reports coming out now and then concerning our health and what to do and what to take: "take this,' 'don't take that,' 'do this,' 'don't do that.' Now a story that stearic acid, one of the main saturated fats in beef and chocolate, may actually lower levels in the blood and thus moderate the cholesterol-raising effect of other saturated fats in these foods. But they are quick to add that one must not change dietary habits without first consulting your physician.

HOW ABOUT THIS ONE! - A pharmaceutical company is replacing potentially contaminated batches of a popular cholesterol lowering drug called 'QUESTRAN.' It seems that the action was taken after the company learned that one of the ingredients in the drug (supplied by an Italian manufacturer) may have been contaminated by agricultural chemicals made by the same manufacturer...GOOD GRIEF! It seems as though we are playing Russian Roulette every time we take our medicine!

OOPS! WE FORGOT to tell about this one with a Florida flavor! Living in Florida, there is what is called BUFO MARINUS, a killer toad which can grow to the size of a football!...This fellow likes to gobble pet food from backyard bowls. Should the cat or dog object, the toad secrets a poison from glands in its neck that can kill the pets. Concluded one scientist: 'We have the worst of everything!'...Did you know that the state bird of Florida is the Mosquito!

WELL, ME BUCKOES! 'Tis time to say 'fare thee well' until next time. We wish you all the Top of the Morn, the Warmth of the Day, and the Peace of the Nite. We Bid You Peace.
Your Pal - Joe. Shalom!

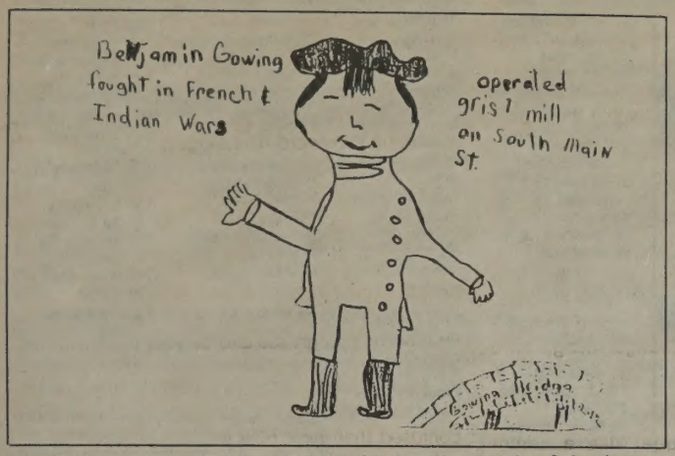
A Bit of History....

By Grace Laflash



Art work by Rebecca Belsito, Grade 5, Assumption School

Because it is our Town's 175th birthday, I would like to share a bit of history with you. Nearly every jaunt to the western section of our town necessitates a trip across the bridge which spans the Blackstone River. It has been called Gowan Bridge, McGowan Bridge, and many other derivatives. The proper name is "Gowing Bridge," a name chosen many years ago to perpetuate the memory of Benjamin Gowing.

Ben married Abigail Wyman. Their family consisted of two sons and one daughter.

The first church built at the Old Common was referred to as "The Lord's Barn" (it resembled one). Each individual purchased the ground then built his own pew. Mr. Gowing paid five pounds, eight shillings, and his family occupied pew number seven.

Benjamin fought in the French and Indian Wars. In 1755, he was one of the 3,000 men who sailed from Boston for Chignecto, Nova Scotia, on the Bay of Fundy, where they joined the British troops. General Moncton and General Winslow led them into battle. They were victorious and Nova Scotia passed from French domination to British control.

Before the road and South Main Street bridge existed, on the eastern shore of the "Half-Way River (Blackstone), Ben operated a grist mill.
